

ARTICLES FROM ONE EDITION ARE NEVER REPEATED

Is it not a little significant that the first buyers are now returning to get another one of those $10, $12 and $15 suits we are running at $6.25, to put it away for next fall. The shrewd rascals!

Better not put off buying yours, as the piles are getting lower every day.

We have made more friends and customers by this sale of $10, $12 and $15 suits for $6.25 than any offer since we have been in business.

If in search of an overcoat, you will find a better one for the money in these two special lots at $7.50 and $10 ones than procurable anywhere else in America today. About half former prices!

PARKER, BRIDGET & CO.
Clothing, 315 7th St.

Standard for the World.

Columbia Bicycles

You See Them Everywhere

1896 Patterns Now Ready.

District Cycle Co.,
452 Penna. Ave. N. W.

Fit.

Our clothes fit your pocketbook as well as your person. No lower prices in town.

GARNER & CO., Outfitters,
N. E. Cor 7th & H Sts. N. W.

WARD SHOULD BE RELEASED.

John Montgomery About to Go West and Play Ball.

New York, Jan. 31.—President Freeman of the Giants said today that he has information that John Montgomery Ward had made application for a Western League franchise.

This was most surprising news, for Ward had maintained that he had given up ball playing forever. He is getting along nicely in his law business, influential friends putting many cases in his way. At the November meeting of the National League Ward delegated a reporter to place a proposition before Mr. Freeman to the effect that he would sign a gentlemen's agreement to play ball again without first offering his services to the New York club if the club would take him out of the reserve list. Mr. Freeman assented to this at the time, but the next day Ward contacted to let the national board of arbitration judge whether he belonged upon the New York reserve list.

Mr. Freeman says that President Robinson of the Cleveland club gave it as his opinion last Sunday in Boston that Ward honestly belonged upon the New York club, and that the case should hardly be decided upon technical points.

WITHIN THE ROPES.

The limited round contest between Steve O'Donnell and Jim Dwyer, which was arranged Wednesday afternoon, will no doubt be decided in the New Manhattan Athletic Club, as both men, it is said, would rather meet there than at any other place.

Jack Downey, the Brooklyn featherweight, says that the report published to the effect that he had backed out of his match with Solly Smith is untrue, as he is willing to meet him at 125 pounds, but Smith refused, and the match fell through.

Within the next few days Frank Kelly, manager of Denver Ed. Smith, will post a forfeit of $1,000 in support of a challenge to anybody in the world for $5,000 a side. The challenge, while on its face it is made to anybody, will be hardily directed at the winner of the Maher-Fitzsimmons fight.

Just what was expected took place last night. The Dixon-Patterson boxing contest was a draw. The Dixon is quite handy with his fists. Patterson will return to England tomorrow.

Shashier Gallagher and P. F. Gillespie, ex-champion featherweight of Philadelphia, have been matched to fight fifteen rounds February 15 or 19, the fight to be brought off in private.

The anti-boxing bill introduced in the New York legislature by Assemblyman Heston makes it a misdemeanor to engage in a public or private sparring exhibition, with or without gloves, at which an admission fee is charged, either directly or indirectly. The only exception made is that sparring exhibitions with gloves of not less than four ounces each in weight may be held in a building owned by an incorporated athletic association.

Joe Chynski will not be able to fight again for four months. He has an abscess in his ear, as a result of his fight with Jim Hall, and has got to have an operation performed. He will go to Texas to the big fight, and then travel through California.

TALK AMONG THE SPORTS

Dan Stuart Is Ready With His Numerous Big Attractions.

FITZ IS A SLIGHT FAVORITE

Pittsburghers Will Back Maher and Are Trying to Force Him to Have the Call in the Betting—Marshall Regarded as a Very Clever Fighter. Everhardt Expected to Beat Leeds.

As the eventful time approaches, the patrons of the ring all over the country are planning for the big "assembly" at El Paso. The plans for the carnival of fight sport projected by Dan Stuart have been completed, and everything is now in readiness for what promises to go down upon the pages of pugilistic history as the greatest event of the kind ever promoted.

Stuart has laid his plans so carefully that it is difficult to see where a hitch can occur, and if he brings off his great show he must be put down in future as the strongest backer of "the opposition" the ring has had on its feet, and it is altogether bullheadedness.

In fact, the chief move, seeming to point to his ultimate success in his latest endeavor, is his strategy in keeping the actual point of meeting from all. With supreme confidence, backed by posted money, he has told ring followers from everywhere that he will meet them at a certain day in El Paso, and that they should report quickly to the meeting ground. Assurances have been given that there will be no interference, and that the fights will be pulled off on the dates specified.

There is a business-like ring in everything that has been done. The signing of the principals in the big fight was accomplished without any sensational accompaniments, the money was put up as agreed. At the time appointed for subsequent proceedings everybody was on hand and prepared to do business.

The referee has been selected, a man mutually agreeable to the principals, in whom the public also has confidence. A final stakeholder has been chosen, and Stuart has assured the principals that on the day agreed upon he will place in his custody the full amount of the purse. Thus far the program has been carried out without a break, and there is no reason for believing that Stuart will not fulfill all his obligations.

Reports from the betting centers speak of lively speculation on the fight events. Betting on the fights is quite lively in El Paso. In the principal event Fitzsimmons is a slight favorite.

A bet of $1,100 to $1,000 on Fitzsimmons was made the other day. It is understood that there will be big money in El Paso from Fitzsimmons to back Maher about the 1st of February. It is even money on Everhardt and Leeds, and small odds are offered on Dixon and Walcott.

Should Maher win, however, his party will go broke on Dixon and Walcott. In the Barry Murphy fight things are about even. The best man that Barry has met is Casper Leon, whom he twice defeated.

At the same time, the form shown by Barry points to the conclusion that he is a top-notch fighter. Murphy has the credit of a twenty-five-round draw battle with Billy Plummer in 1894, a very creditable achievement. It remains to be seen if Murphy has retained his form.

On the whole, the contest should be a remarkably interesting one, with the result a problem. All these battles will take place in the daytime, starting about noon.

A great many close observers of the policy of the St. Louis Baseball Club seem to think that the recent actions of Pitcher Breitenstein are the result of a secret understanding with him and President Von der Ahe, by virtue of which the manager may dispose of the player for cash without bringing down on his head the execrations of the St. Louis people.

They cite the stereotyped excuse given by the local club owner when he released Breitenstein: "He was hurt, and he is hurt." It was "What could we do? He wouldn't play in St. Louis. We just had to let him go." Von der Ahe emphatically asserts that he has no intention of parting with Breitenstein.

He refuses to admit that he even knows that Breitenstein has made arrangements which will make him, in a measure, independent of the St. Louis club—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Henry Chadwick, the sage of Sag Harbor, is a thorough advocate of ball tossers training at all times. In a recent letter, Papa Chadwick says:

"Here is a reminder of the late veteran, Harry Wright, the king of professional baseball managers, who has never had an equal in the position. It is an article I wrote in 1886 on the value of training in batting."

"While visiting Philadelphia in the spring of 1885, I stopped in at the Recreation grounds in the morning to see Harry Wright, and I found the veteran busy in training his players to bat. His rule was to have the practice pitcher throw twelve balls to each batsman, and train his sight to a swift delivery."

"Carrying out a plan like this to the point of exhaustion of the batsman would soon reach the high position toward perfection in strategic play at the bat that pitchers have gained in pitching and infielders in fielding."

"Suppose a team were to meet on its club field every morning for special training at the bat, in which each batsman would take his position to face the delivery of a regular practice pitcher, who would send him fair balls over the base first with the in-curve, then with the out-curve, followed by so many upshots and downshots, and so many balls marked by change of pace in delivery; and that each batsman practicing against such a diversified fire from the battery, should be credited with every least hit made under the training, and that all base hits he makes in his practice to be credited to him until a certain aggregate had been reached entitling him to a reward."

"Does any one suppose that under such a training system the batting of the trained team would not be improved 100 per cent before the regular championship season had commenced?"

"I notice that Hanlon has got his players into a little bit of this training at the bat in the preliminary half team's practice before the game begins. But I know of no regular batting practice, such as Harry Wright adopted, having been tried by any manager since the late veteran's time."

In view of the performances of late Hanlon is again beating about the bush for a second trial with Kid Lavigne.

He thinks he was not in the very best fettle at the meeting before the Empire Club, and that in another show he would have a handful of trumps in playing for the lightweight honors, concerning which close followers of ring events will, however, be somewhat inclined to differ with him.

Nevertheless, he has seemed to surpass himself of late. Perhaps he may be plenty good enough for the fight with the winner of the finish between Everhardt and Leeds.

Still selling Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Neckwear and the like at 20 per cent off at MAYER'S!

9 Pennsylvania Avenue. Gloves, Shirts, Neckwear.

Joe Chynski will not be able to fight again for four months. He has an abscess in his ear, as a result of his fight with Jim Hall, and has got to have an operation performed. He will go to Texas to the big fight, and then travel through California.

Joe Chynski will not be able to fight again for four months. He has an abscess in his ear, as a result of his fight with Jim Hall, and has got to have an operation performed. He will go to Texas to the big fight, and then travel through California.

Joe Chynski will not be able to fight again for four months. He has an abscess in his ear, as a result of his fight with Jim Hall, and has got to have an operation performed. He will go to Texas to the big fight, and then travel through California.

MUNYON'S GREAT WORK

The Wonderful Cures Performed in This City By His Remedies Surpasses All Modern Medical Feats.

Physicians and Specialists Alike Surprised and Dismayed at the Grand Work Done by These Specialists—Thousands of People Now Use Munyon's Remedies and Save Large Doctor's Bills.

Catarh, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Blood and Nervous Diseases, Bladder and Kidney Troubles, and All Female Complaints Immediately Relieved and Permanently Cured.

If you are ailing ask your druggist for a 25-cent vial of one of Munyon's Remedies and secure immediate relief. If you need the advice of a physician call and consult Munyon's specialists; it will cost you nothing. You can procure your remedies here, at your druggist's or not at all. There is absolutely no charge for consultation.

Office, 713 Fourteenth Street Northwest.

Hours—9 to 5 daily; Monday and Tuesday evenings, 6 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12.

scheduled as one of the attractions of "Dan" Stuart's five-cornered event.

The candidates for the presidency of the League of American Wheelmen—A. C. Watson and Sterling Elliott—are now having an active canvass for votes, and the election at the annual meeting of the National Assembly, to be held at Baltimore early next month, will likely be very exciting.

The makeup of the entire ticket has not yet been settled. It is expected that George Perkins, A. C. Morrison and E. A. Morgan will be the candidates for reelection to the offices of first and second vice presidents and treasurer, respectively, on the Watson ticket. Elliott's ticket is rather indefinite. Chief Counsel Robert Gentile of the New Jersey division, has been mentioned as Elliott's choice for first vice president, but he may not accept. W. A. Connelly of Illinois, one of the most popular western wheelmen, has been selected for the office of second vice president, and will lend a power of strength to Elliott's candidacy.

There has been some talk of W. H. Watts of Louisville accepting a place on the Elliott ticket, but it is doubtful if he will accept. E. S. Hartwell of Denver is the choice of the Elliott followers for the office of treasurer. The Massachusetts candidate will have the support of his own division, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and a strong Western vote, which is expected will secure him the election.

GOSSIP OF THE DIAMOND.

Baseball magnates say there is no truth in the report that the Cleveland franchise is on the market.

Last season Hamilton, Boston's new outfielder, reached first base eighteen times in succession.

There is another O'Connor in the Cleveland team. Mike, the brother of Jack O'Connor, the Spiders' catcher, has been signed, and will be loaned to the Dabnugs, Iowa, team in the Western Association, until he is needed. Mike is an infielder of considerable ability.

Hanson says he is willing to bet Anson and Tolan that the Orioles will beat out any team in the league. That's a good even-money bet.

Manager Baneroff has ordered a set of the new Cincinnati flags. They will be used at the ballpark in connection with the American flag.

"Silver" King wants his name taken off the Cincinnati reserve list. His request will be granted, as the Cincinnati club has no use for him.

It was announced at the national board meeting that the Atlantic League have dropped Trenton from the circuit, and would take up Hartford instead.

George H. Gray, the chief of last season's Toronto team, and James J. Donnelly, of the Springfield Eastern League team, will wear Oriole uniforms this season. Manager Hanson yesterday received their signatures to contract.

President Freeman, of the New Yorks, says that the story that F. A. Abel had proposed selling him the great Victor property is true. "But one club is enough to strain any man," said Mr. Freeman, "and I refused the offer, being influenced also by the fact that it might create ugly talk if the transaction became public."

Pittsburghers Bet on the Big Fight. Pittsburgh, Jan. 31.—Local betting on the result of the battle at El Paso is becoming very interesting. So far there has been about $6,000 bet on the result. The betting here has been chiefly at 11 to 10 and 5 to 4 on Fitzsimmons, and a number of small bets have been recorded at even odds. There is considerable money in Pittsburgh yet to back Maher.

Colorado Gold Mine Sold. Denver, Col., Jan. 31.—The Little May mine, adjoining the great Victor property on Ball Hill, Cripple Creek district, was sold yesterday to a Boston and New York city syndicate. The Little May is one of the best gold mines in Colorado, and is said to have the Victor vein. The consideration is not known.

Some Horses on the Island. Jack White and Charley Diamond were in town yesterday. They took a run down from New York to have a look at the Ayres State horses which are wintering at Alexander Island. White appeared to be satisfied with the result of his trip, reporting everything to be in ship-shape order and the entire string doing well.

"Whedock," said White, "is the best-looking horse at the Alexander Island track, but he is not worth $1. He is without doubt the worst counterfitter I ever saw. To see him in the paddock a man would bet his life on him, but when it comes to running he usually manages to be a bad last."

"The balance of my horses are also coming along finely. I saw Fagin and Tancred and they have rounded out wonderfully. Fagin in particular is looking like a two-year-old, and he will be fit as a fiddle when the game starts up again."

Jack Daly, the Wilmington lad, will box Stanton Abbott six rounds before the Tuxedo Club of Philadelphia tonight. Daly has been in Philadelphia for several days with "Doc" Ray. They went on to look into some personal business of Daly's, and will, in all probability, be gone for a couple of weeks.

"Doc" writes that he has Jack Kelly and would like to match him against Howard Wilson of this city or Jimmy Lynch of New York. As Jimmy has announced his intention of retiring from the fight arena it is likely that Wilson will be pitted against Kelly.

The Young Men's Athletic Club is arranging for a carnival to be held about the middle of February. There will be a couple of interesting preliminary bouts of eight or ten rounds, and the main go of the evening will be for fifteen or twenty rounds.

Hugh Dempsey Released. Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 31.—The pardon of Hugh Dempsey, who has been serving out a term in the Riverside penitentiary for being implicated in the poisoning of workmen during the great strike at Homestead, was received by Warden Wright at an early hour this morning. At 10 o'clock Dempsey's wife, accompanied by two friends, drove to the penitentiary, and after a touching scene, at 10:30 o'clock, they, in company with the now ex-prisoner, drove away.

Judge Miller, Prosecuting Attorney Mulowney, several members of the jury, a witness, and Lawyer E. M. Hewlett were the actors in a rather exciting incident that occurred during the court proceedings this morning. The case of William Carter, colored, charged with larceny by Hezekiah Waple, a white man, was before the court. Mr. Hewlett represented the defendant.

The prosecuting witness finished his testimony, and some of his answers were prejudicial to the defendant's character. As he left the stand Mr. Hewlett turned to him, and, referring to some parts of his testimony, said:

"You have told a deliberate falsehood." Judge Miller was writing a letter and did not hear the remark, but Mr. Mulowney called his attention to it.

"Witnesses are entitled to protection from the court," he said, "and it is outrageous that they should be insulted in this manner."

Then Mr. Hewlett explained that he did not mean the remark as an insult, either to the court or the witness, but Judge Miller didn't see it that way. He inquired of some of the jurymen what words were used, and when they were repeated to him said:

"Mr. Hewlett can pay a fine of $10 for contempt of court."

Mr. Hewlett waxed more and more indignant as the trial proceeded, and took advantage of another occasion for an outburst. Mr. Mulowney put a question to the defendant, which was objected to by Mr. Hewlett on the grounds that it was leading.

"I propose to have this case conducted in a proper manner," he said. Mr. Mulowney's reply again excited the lawyer's ire, and he said to the judge:

"If your honor doesn't do something to protect us from insults, I will take the matter in my own hands."

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

CARNIVAL FOR RINGSTERS

Young Men's Club Preparing for Boxing Events in March.

LIVELY TIME IS EXPECTED

Billy McMillan and "Kid" McCoy to Be One of the Attractions—Return Game of Pool Probable—How Some of the Horses Are Wintering on the Island.

Billy McMillan has firmly decided that he will not fight "Kid" McCoy before the Baltimore Eureka Athletic Club and is only waiting to hear from the "Kid" before he perfects arrangements to bring the match off under the auspices of the Young Men's Athletic Club. The latter club has held out better inducements than the Eureka Club, and of course the men are not fighting for the love of the thing, they will go where they can get the most money.

Pending the arrangement for the McMillan-McCoy contest, the Young Men's Club will hold a series of bouts during the coming month. Three or four contests between local men will be put on, the chief attraction probably being between Hughie Lyons and Ralph Irving. The latter has expressed a desire upon several occasions to get at Lyons, and as there is had blood between these two boys, they should put on a good fight.

Young Saxi will probably be put on one of the preliminary bouts against an "unknown" from East Washington who is said to be a corner in his class. The exact date for the carnival has not yet been announced but will be given out in the course of a few days by the management.

Appropos to his coming fight with Horace Leeds, "Jack" Everhart is out in an interview, in which he says on the championship question, "I am satisfied with Leeds as long as Lavigne refuses to meet me in a finish fight. But I have announced that the winner of this fight will carry the fighting lightweight championship of the world, and I have said in my class, the winner of my class shall have defeated him. I respect McAuliffe and his claim to the title up to the present time, but the title now is in just the same fix it would be if Jack were dead—as he is dead so far as being able to defend it at weight now considered."

"I could legitimately claim the title of the world's lightweight champion, for the reason that McAuliffe, the real champion, is unable to defend it, and Lavigne, who stands closer to the title in the public estimation than any other man, is unable to fight for the title, or to defend it, but I will not be quite that daring or conceited just yet."

Will Play a Return Match. "Doc" Rogers and Fred Stewart to Meet at the Emrich Tonight.

"Doc" Rogers is not satisfied with the result of the match that he played with Fred Stewart, the champion of Baltimore, at the Emrich Hotel on Wednesday night, and they will play a return match at the same place tonight.

This game, like the previous one, will be one of 200 points for a purse of $100. Rogers is very confident that he can beat the Baltimore champion, and there will be a host of his admirers on hand, who will bet even money that way.

Another District Team. Another baseball team is being organized with the intention of making application for admission to the proposed District League. Messrs. George W. Phillips and J. H. Murphy, who are both well known in baseball circles, are the promoters of the scheme, and they claim to have plenty of good material from which to select a team that should prove to be winners. Many of the members will be taken from the ranks of the Young Stars, which cut quite a prominent figure last season.

Will Meet to Sign Articles. Hughie Lyons and Ralph Irving will please meet at this office at 8 o'clock tonight to sign articles of agreement for a meeting between the Young Men's Athletic Club.

LOCAL BOXING GOSSIP. Jack Daly, the Wilmington lad, will box Stanton Abbott six rounds before the Tuxedo Club of Philadelphia tonight. Daly has been in Philadelphia for several days with "Doc" Ray. They went on to look into some personal business of Daly's, and will, in all probability, be gone for a couple of weeks.

"Doc" writes that he has Jack Kelly and would like to match him against Howard Wilson of this city or Jimmy Lynch of New York. As Jimmy has announced his intention of retiring from the fight arena it is likely that Wilson will be pitted against Kelly.

The Young Men's Athletic Club is arranging for a carnival to be held about the middle of February. There will be a couple of interesting preliminary bouts of eight or ten rounds, and the main go of the evening will be for fifteen or twenty rounds.

Hugh Dempsey Released. Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 31.—The pardon of Hugh Dempsey, who has been serving out a term in the Riverside penitentiary for being implicated in the poisoning of workmen during the great strike at Homestead, was received by Warden Wright at an early hour this morning. At 10 o'clock Dempsey's wife, accompanied by two friends, drove to the penitentiary, and after a touching scene, at 10:30 o'clock, they, in company with the now ex-prisoner, drove away.

Judge Miller, Prosecuting Attorney Mulowney, several members of the jury, a witness, and Lawyer E. M. Hewlett were the actors in a rather exciting incident that occurred during the court proceedings this morning. The case of William Carter, colored, charged with larceny by Hezekiah Waple, a white man, was before the court. Mr. Hewlett represented the defendant.

The prosecuting witness finished his testimony, and some of his answers were prejudicial to the defendant's character. As he left the stand Mr. Hewlett turned to him, and, referring to some parts of his testimony, said:

"You have told a deliberate falsehood." Judge Miller was writing a letter and did not hear the remark, but Mr. Mulowney called his attention to it.

"Witnesses are entitled to protection from the court," he said, "and it is outrageous that they should be insulted in this manner."

Then Mr. Hewlett explained that he did not mean the remark as an insult, either to the court or the witness, but Judge Miller didn't see it that way. He inquired of some of the jurymen what words were used, and when they were repeated to him said:

"Mr. Hewlett can pay a fine of $10 for contempt of court."

Mr. Hewlett waxed more and more indignant as the trial proceeded, and took advantage of another occasion for an outburst. Mr. Mulowney put a question to the defendant, which was objected to by Mr. Hewlett on the grounds that it was leading.

"I propose to have this case conducted in a proper manner," he said. Mr. Mulowney's reply again excited the lawyer's ire, and he said to the judge:

"If your honor doesn't do something to protect us from insults, I will take the matter in my own hands."

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

The troubled waters were finally calmed, and Mr. Hewlett gave the marshal two crisp five-dollar bills. The affair caused considerable talk among the police court lawyers.

Sharp and Decisive "Clearance Sale" Of All Men's Goods

Going to give up our Men's Furnishing Department. This store is to be exclusively for women. The selling will be short and fast, for we intend to get rid of the stock immediately.

Big center tables will be filled with special offerings AT HALF PRICE.

All 25c. Neckwear at 12½c.

50c Neckwear, 25c. $1 SHIRTS, 69c.

All of the 50c. neckwear in Assorted Ties, Four-in-hands, De Joinville, Puffs, Bows, and Club Ties, in white black and fancies unnumberable. Choice 25c

75c and $1 Neckwear, 38c 50c SHIRTS, 31c.

All of the 75c. and $1 Neckwear, in beautiful Four-in-hands, Ties, Puffs, etc. Handsome variety of rich color effects. Choice 38c

These are unnumbered, made of good material, linen bosoms and hands, and represent extraordinary value at 50c. Ties 31c

These are unnumbered, made of good material, linen bosoms and hands, and represent extraordinary value at 50c. Ties 31c

These are unnumbered, made of good material, linen bosoms and hands, and represent extraordinary value at 50c. Ties 31c

These are unnumbered, made of good material, linen bosoms and hands, and represent extraordinary value at 50c. Ties 31c

These are unnumbered, made of good material, linen bosoms and hands, and represent extraordinary value at 50c. Ties 31c

These are unnumbered, made of good material, linen bosoms and hands, and represent extraordinary value at 50c. Ties 31c